Living Waters of Hope and Healing -September 30th in Chelmsford Cathedral 5.15pm - 8pm

You are warmly invited to join us for a special ecumenical service to mark 10 years of Eco Church followed by a panel event (5.15pm Evensong, 6pm Refreshments and stalls, 6.30pm Panel Q&A, 8pm End). Everyone is welcome! Come for all or part of the evening - it's free and we'll provide refreshments, but you will need to book through Eventbrite to help us with catering: tinyurl.com/4k4uut24 2026 is a milestone year as A Rocha UK celebrates 25 years since its inception and 10 years of Eco Church! This event is one of four special Eco Church anniversary services in England and Wales. It will be a special time of praise and thanksgiving, as we remember God's goodness and all that has been achieved over the last 10 years. Do join us as we give thanks for all that has been, and look forward, with hope, to all that lies ahead. The Cathedral will also be hosting the stunning Threads Through Creation by Jacqui Parkinson Textile Artist, so make sure you have enough time to enjoy this, either before or after our event. As part of the celebration, we invite you to share your church's creative response to God's creation. In keeping with the Threads of Creation tapestries, which will be on display, we invite you to bring along embroidery, cross-stitch or other pieces to add to our exhibition on the day. This might be an ambitious project created with your church or as simple as a leaf crafted with fabric scraps!

The Rt Revd Dr Guli Francis-Dehqani, Bishop of Chelmsford, will preside over the service and chair the panel discussion.
