Supporting The Children's Society at Holy Trinity.

Some of us have boxes at home to collect our spare change during the year for The Children's Society, the national charity supported by our congregation. Carol McMaster will be exchanging the house boxes in the coming weeks so that we can send a donation. There will also be a collection box at the church entrance and an option to donate using the card reader. Whether it's a little or a lot, our generosity can help The Children's Society make a huge difference to a young person dealing with abuse, exploitation, and neglect.

Threads through creation, Chelmsford Cathedral.

This autumn, Chelmsford Cathedral becomes home to one of the largest textile art projects ever undertaken by a single artist. Threads through Creation is a sequence of twelve monumental panels by textile artist Jacqui Parkinson, an exuberant, hand-stitched retelling of the creation story from the book of Genesis. Across nearly three years of painstaking work, Jacqui has brought the six days of creation to life in an explosion of colour, pattern and texture, filled with the creatures, land and sea of a world being spoken into being.
Entry is free, the exhibition runs Friday 4 September to Wednesday 7 October 2026, and is open daily Monday to Saturday, 9.30am to 5.00pm. Full details from Chelmsford Cathedral's website
